Royal Update

e-newsletter of the Royal Rosarians

Greetings Rosarians,

This is your electronic newsletter (e- newsletter) produced and edited by Secretary of State Peter Glazer.

If you read the first issue, you know that the goal of your leadership is to communicate more frequently and more effectively with Rosarians. We hope that better communication will increase your participation in Rosarian events of all kinds (parades, greetings, formal events, out-of-town visitations, and more). If you have ideas regarding this newsletter, please contact Peter Glazer.

Veterans Parade Friday in Hollywood District

Let's Have a Good Turnout This Friday Morning

A second Veterans Parade has been added to the calendar--this Friday, Veterans' Day, in the Hollywood District. Jan Tolman is parade chair and Mark Reaksecker is chairman for local parades. Meet at McDonald's at NE 40th & Hancock between 9:15 and 9:30 am. The parade starts at 10 am. After the parade, lunch will be provided at Aunt Tillie's restaurant.

The photo above was taken Saturday at the Vancouver Veterans Parade. About 20 Rosarians braved the rainy morning. Spectators repeatedly thanked us for coming to Vancouver. Thanks a lot to those who participated, including Keith George, Neal Brown, Glen Swanson, James Brennan, Patty Hufford, David Ott, Virgil Caramella, all three red capes (Fred Cooper, Tom Marantette & Marilyn Schultz), Sue Klobertanz, Harvey Collier, Denny Baker, John Creegan, Bob Strader and Peter Glazer.

Holiday Parade

November 25

Plan to march in the final parade of 2005, the Holiday Parade on Friday, November 25. Join your fellow Rosarians for this Thanksgiving weekend tradition. Participate because it's fun and you know the immeasurable joy of making a child smile as you march by.

Honor Guard at Oregon Historical Society

Welcome Lewis & Clark Visitors & Exhibition Saturday, Nov. 12

Next Saturday, November 12, Rosarians are asked to form an Honor Guard at the ceremony welcoming from St. Louis the Lewis & Clark

National Bicentennial Exhibition. Be at the Oregon Historical Society (on the SW Park Blocks) by 8:30 a.m. Wear Whites with hats and gloves (no capes for Council) to welcome the visitors from St. Louis for the public opening of the exhibition. For more information, contact Virgil Caramella. A link to the Oregon Historical Society website is below.

Hearts & Roses Auction

February 11, 2006 at Holiday Inn on Weidler

Chairs Dave and Connie Shipley are hard at work on the 2006 Hearts and Roses Auction. Pat and Pat Brothers are working hard on procurement and counting on all Rosarians to help bring in great auction items.

There are several ways for you to help--and your help is needed now: Donate an auction item and/or procure a donation from a friend or business customer. Items valued at $25,000 have been donated but the goal is $100,000 of donated items. Your help is needed to make the 2006 Hearts and Roses auction a success. Another great way to help our Rosarian Foundation Hearts & Roses auction is to invite your friends and put together a table. If you don't want to arrange your own table, but know of friends or business contacts who should be invited, contact Jennifer Merkel and she'll arrange to send a "Save the Date" card now and an invitation when they go out (after Christmas).

Capacity is 30 tables at the auction. About 10 are spoken for already. If you are interested in buying a table (base cost is $600 for table of 8; with higher sponsorship opportunities up to $2,500 and $5,000 per table you and your guests receive extra benefits including an exclusive VIP reception before the auction) please contact Fred Cooper or Dave Shipley. Visit the Rosarian website ("Announcements") for donation forms, ticket and table purchase forms.

Christmas for Kids

Help Underprivileged Kids December 6

Rosarians will again participate in Christmas for Kids on Tuesday, December 6, 2005. Again, we will shop one-on-one with an underprivileged child at the Hollywood Fred Meyer store.

Call Dr. Bob Simmons for an appointment. Scheduled times for volunteer Rosarians probably will be between 9 am and early afternoon. Call Bob to schedule your opportunity to help a needy child shop for his/her family and him/herself.

Announcements

For the Good of the Royal Rosarians

Be a Royal Communicator. Aivars Saukants is chair of Royal Communicators and can use a couple more volunteers. Can you help? Please call Aivars.

Council Meeting Schedule: November 14, January 16, February 20, March 20, April 17, May 8, May 22 and June 12. Council meetings are at Multnomah Athletic Club at 7 pm.

Vista House Dedication--Save the Date. The rededication of Vista House will be Friday, May 5, 2006, during the day. Since it's a workday, mark your calendar now to keep it open.

A Great Idea--Share This E-Newsletter. The Royal Update is a welcome new communications tool for our members but it can be even more. How about adding your spouse's email address so he/she also receives the Royal Update? It's easy--click on "Join" below and, to be doubly sure we get the information, also email your spouse's name and email address to pkglazer@aol.com. Thanks! Note: You are welcome to forward the Royal Update to friends who you think might be interested in the Royal Rosarians.

Holiday Brunch December 4. The Royal Rosarians Happy Holiday Brunch will be Sunday, December 4 at Multnomah Athletic Club. Social Cheer starts at 11 am with Buffet Brunch at 11:45 am. The cost is $30 per person. Attire is green jacket with black slacks. You may wear a holiday tie or scarf rather than your red tie if you wish; there will be a tie/scarf contest. Bring both non-perishable food items (for Portland Police Sunshine Division) and unwrapped toys (for Portland Fire Bureau Toy & Joy) to donate. Buy tickets before November 28 by contacting James Brennan, chair of the Holiday Brunch (phone 503-579-9186).
